

MOM(18):

-We learnt about some sensors together and understood their codes and watched a tutorial for the photo interruptor sensor.

-We knew that we were taking so long but we wanted a convenient way for the distance and angle because we knew that if we were able to do them, coding for the shapes required will be so easy.

-We rearranged our code in functions and called them in our main loop so it would look more decent.