MOM(14):

-Before beginning to work in phase 3, we found out that the current mobile application we're using isn't suitable as it doesn't read input for distance or angle but only moves with directions. So we thought we should program the distance and angle by the directions that we didn't use and we started working on it.